1. What particularly stood out to you, challenge you or confused you in our study of 1 Corinthians 5:1-13 this week?
2. Some Christians think that sin is not that big of a deal because we are already forgiven. How does Galatians 6:7-10 help us stay away from this kind of errant thinking?
3. Do you ever find yourself feeling "weary of doing good" (Gal 6:9)? If so, explain.
4. Sin is a big deal. That's why the Bible gives us a number of guidelines for dealing with sin in our own lives and in the lives of those around us. Read the following verses and identify when we're supposed to get involved in the lives of others and the manner in which we are to do so.

Matthew 18:15

Matthew 5:23-24

Galatians 6:1-5

5. One of our points last week was that we are called not to be boycotters who judge the world but evangelists who infiltrate the world. What are some of the places, hobbies, or activities that are currently a part of your life that bring you into contact with non-believers? How are you using those contact points to call people to follow you as you follow Christ?
6. Who is the person that you wrote down at the beginning of the sermon? Tell the story of how your life intersected with theirs and then ask your group to help you and hold you accountable as you pray for them, reach out to them, and even invite them into Christian fellowship with you.
